

Street Kicks Off With Sold-Out Charity Gala

The 2007 Seattle Street of Dreams officially opened its doors on Friday evening as approximately 1,000 people attended the charity gala supporting Children's Home Society of Wash- ington (www.chs-wa.org). Rave reviews were flowing as patrons enjoyed a fully catered meal by Christopher Cunio Catering (206-498-7498) along with a sneak preview of the environmentally friendly homes located at Quinn's Crossing, just outside of Woodinville. "What a wonderful evening", stated Sharon Osborne, President of Children's Home Society of Washington. "We continue to cherish our relationship with the Seattle Street of Dreams since its first show in 1984 and encourage everyone to visit this year's event".

Sharon Osborn, President of CHSW enjoys a laugh with Patricia & John Heller of the Seattle Street of Dreams

Celebrating 20 Years of Dreams

Our Guests Enjoyed the Evening